CHINESE POLL TAX HERITAGE TRUSTEES

Ethnic Communities Minister Melissa Lee announced the appointment of eight trustees to the Chinese Poll Tax Heritage Trust.

The Trust was established in 2004 to promote the preservation of Chinese New Zealand history and awareness of the contribution of early Chinese settlers. It also provides tangible support for the unique history, language, and culture of Chinese New Zealanders.

The Minister reappointed Debbie Sew-Hoy, Jennifer Too, Lois Yee, and Rodney Wong for a second term on the Trust. Denise Ng, Eileen Ng, David Wong, and Hector Wong have been appointed for their first terms.

All terms commence on 1 August 2024. The trustees are based around the country and are all direct descendants of original poll taxpayers.

“Along with their involvement in the Chinese and poll tax communities, the trustees bring a valuable mix of skills and experience in governance, community work, business, finance, and directorship to the work of the Trust,” said Ms Lee. “I thank the outgoing trustees – Paul Chin, Malcolm Wong, Mark Ngan Kee, and Melissa Wong – for their significant contributions to the Trust.”

The next round of applications for funding closes 25th September 2024. For more information - <https://www.communitymatters.govt.nz/chinese-poll-tax-heritage-trust-2/>

NZCA CONFERENCE 2024

The 81st Annual Conference for the New Zealand Chinese Association (“NZCA”) was held on Saturday 22 June and Sunday 23 June at the Brentwood Hotel in Wellington. The annual meeting was attended by 59 delegates from 13 branches throughout New Zealand. The Canterbury branch was represented by Lois Yee, Emmie King, Darett Lowe, Rhonda Ding, Rodney Goh, Karen Prisco and Jared Chin.

The Annual Conference is always a great opportunity for everyone to reconnect with other branches, share ideas and thoughts on important issues and to make new acquaintances and this year’s event was no exception.

The programme for the 2-day conference was diverse and full of interesting topics - from considering reports on the financial and property aspects of NZCA to discussing past and future Easter Tournaments to listening to presentations from the youth delegates of NZCA. There were also discussions on other matters such as the impending required changes to the Constitution of NZCA and its branches and strategies for the revitalisation of the Cantonese language as well as improvements to the NZCA website. From such sharing of ideas and conversations, delegates to the Annual Conference can gain a broader idea of how NZCA operates as well as learn about and contribute to the direction in which it is headed.

During the conference, we were also honoured to have numerous guest speakers including (but not limited to) the Minister for Ethnic Communities, Ms Melissa Lee, author and poet Alison Wong and community advocate, researcher and author, Sidney Wong. All of the talks at the conference were interesting and inspiring for all.

We are also delighted to report that, during the annual conference, Lois Yee was elected as National Vice President of the NZCA – a post in which we are sure she will excel. Our warmest congratulations go out to Lois!

As is the tradition, at the end of the first day, delegates were overwhelmed with generous amounts of Chinese food at an evening dinner at the Grand Century Restaurant in downtown Wellington. This was a terrific way to end the first day of the conference.

The annual conference concluded on the Sunday with everyone having had a productive and thoroughly enjoyable weekend. The delegates all appreciated spending time with each other and, as is usually the case, the annual conference was a great way of reaffirming that we are all part of a vibrant, growing and fantastic national association.

The NZ Chinese Association National Executive 2024

Leo Li (National Secretary- Chinese), Jenny Too (Immediate Past President), Paul Chin (National President), Lois Yee (National Vice-President), Mark Ngan Kee (National Treasurer). Absent - James To (National Secretary)

JUNG LUNCH

The annual Jung Festival Lunch was held at the Canterbury Chinese Association Hall on 9th June 2024. As usual, the lunch was very well attended with around 140 members and family joining the celebration lunch.

For those not aware of what “jungs” are, they are a traditional Chinese rice dish made of glutinous rice filled with different fillings and wrapped up in bamboo leaves. The fillings can be sweet (with red bean paste) or savoury (with pork belly or Chinese sausage) and they are eaten as part of the annual Dragonboat festival.

This year, over 700 jungs (which is an amazing number!) were made for the Jung Festival Lunch and for sale afterward.

Huge thanks to team leaders Cindy Chan, Jane Gin and Marisa Yeung for keeping this tradition going for our community! Also, a huge thanks for help from Rosemary Yee, Emmie King, Jean Yee, Wing Gin, Katie Yee, Yolande Mak, Michael Yeung, Stella Ng, Tim Ng, Lily Siow, Mimi Mao, Margaret Newdick, Mary Young, Janet Yee and Janice Wong.

Our appreciation goes to all our helpers who always make the annual Jung Festival Lunch one of the most successful events in the year for the NZCA Canterbury Association.
